

Satellite radio has provided our family with a broad range of programming not available through other sources. I galdly pay for these services to listen to WHAT I want, WHEN I want. Ultimately it is the only true source of freedom on the radio.